

Reference Number: FOI202324//081
From: Press/Media
Date: 22 May 2023
Subject: Junior doctors pay during strikes

Q1 Are Junior Doctors being paid for days they've been on strike/will be on strike? By "junior doctors" we mean anyone with the title: FY1/ FY2/ ST/ SpR/GPST or anyone else you include in that category

A1 No

Q2 How much has been/will be paid in total to junior doctors for days on which they have been on strike? Costs can be grouped or split out into different types of "junior doctor".

A2 Zero

Q3 Please send any correspondence relating to any decisions on whether to pay junior doctors for days on which they are striking

A3 Information not held – Junior doctors are employed under the terms of the lead employer for the region St Helens and Knowsley NHS Trust. Their terms for industrial action are set out via the link below:

<https://leademployer.sthk.nhs.uk/industrial-action-faqs>

Q4 How many junior doctors do you have and what proportion are they of workforce?

A4 83.02 (4.53%)

Please note this includes Junior Doctors employed by the lead employer St Helens and Knowsley NHS Trust (STHK)