

Reference Number: FOI202425/381
From: Private Individual
Date: 22 November 2024
Subject: Number of Resident / Junior Doctors accessing staff psychology and counselling service

Q1 For each year from 1st January 2010 to 31st December 2023, the number of resident doctors (previously referred to as “junior doctors”) who accessed the Trust’s staff psychology service whilst employed in such a role at the Trust.

This includes any such doctors working in training positions on external premises (e.g. GP practices) whilst still under the umbrella of the Trust.

A1 Information not held – we do not hold a breakdown of referrals by staff group.

Q2 For each year from 1st January 2010 to 31st December 2023, the number of resident doctors (previously referred to as “junior doctors”) who accessed the Trust’s staff counselling service whilst employed in such a role at the Trust.

This includes any such doctors working in training positions on external premises (e.g. GP practices) whilst still under the umbrella of the Trust.

A2 Information not held – we do not hold a breakdown of referrals by staff group.

Q3 For each month during the years 2019-2023, the number of resident doctors (previously referred to as “junior doctors”) who accessed the Trust’s staff psychology service whilst employed in such a role at the Trust.

This includes any such doctors working in training positions on external premises (e.g. GP practices) whilst still under the umbrella of the Trust.

A3 Information not held – we do not hold a breakdown of referrals by staff group.

Q4 For each month during the years 2019-2023, the number of resident doctors (previously referred to as “junior doctors”) who accessed the Trust’s staff counselling service whilst employed in such a role at the Trust.

This includes any such doctors working in training positions on external premises (e.g. GP practices) whilst still under the umbrella of the Trust.

A4 Information not held – we do not hold a breakdown of referrals by staff group.